LEDucation 2020 Will Continue as Planned

March 5, 2020. New York—LEDucation 2020 Trade Show and Conference will take place in New York City on March 17 and 18 at the New York Hilton Midtown. At present, the COVID-19 situation has had very minor impacts on LEDucation attendee and exhibitor registrations, and we will continue as planned.

LEDucation 2020 and the New York Hilton Midtown are monitoring the ever-changing COVID-19 situation very closely and taking precautions to ensure the health of all event participants. Details are posted on the LEDucation website.

We urge everyone coming to LEDucation 2020 to follow CDC guidelines and protocols or simply reconsider attending if you are feeling unwell. Please visit the CDC website for further information: www.cdc.gov

Should there be any changes to the current status, we will take account of any recommendations from relevant federal and state authorities, and the municipal health authorities, and implement all appropriate instructions.

LEDucation 2020 will host more than 400 exhibitors representing the lighting industry’s most innovative design and technology companies and the conference is set to feature 33 sessions, led by lighting and allied field industry experts.
