TRADE SHOW AND CONFERENCE
MARCH 19–20, 2024
NEW YORK HILTON MIDTOWN
Virtual Sessions March 14–15

LEDucation 2024 Speaker Submission is Open

NEW YORK, June 14, 2023 —LEDucation is accepting speaking proposals through September 1, 2023, for the 2024 educational program.

The 2024 Trade Show and Conference is set for March 19-20 at the New York Hilton Midtown in New York City. Virtual sessions will be offered the prior week, Thursday, March 14th and Friday, 15th.

“LEDucation has grown exponentially and attracts top thought leaders from the lighting industry. Virtual sessions attracted over 3,000 attendees from around the globe in 2023 and we are excited to expand to two days of virtual in 2024 to further support online education,” state Shaun Fillion and Wendy Kaplan, LEDucation Presentations Committee co-chairs.

LEDucation provides insightful presentations, panel discussions, practical case studies, and addresses topics exploring emerging issues. The Conference will highlight the latest technologies, regulatory updates, essential issues, and lighting trends. Sessions are AIA CES–approved.

LEDucation speaker submissions require an abstract and learning objectives for proposed sessions. The learning objectives must be clear and measurable. Prospective speakers are encouraged to submit their presentation directly to the portal. We are seeking presentations on the following topics:

- Sustainability and material transparency
- Codes and compliance issues
- Lighting for health and wellbeing
- Lighting design tools, communication, metrics, and methodologies
- The business of lighting in different market sectors
- Emerging LED, OLED, and controls technologies
